ASPIRING THOUGHTS

When I was at school the Year 9's didn't get to go on a camp. We researched a place and chose it for its 'historical educational' aspect to try and convince the teachers to take us on a camp. It didn't work.

I smile at this memory now, because the Year 9 Aspire program takes the Year 9's on four camps throughout the year, numerous hikes and many urban days. A dream. Right?

The camps are fun! We camp in the bush, hike parts of the Cape-to-Cape, experience farm life and serve others in Esperance. We head to beaches, have cultural experiences and spend time relaxing with friends. But what is the educational purpose?

As teachers in the Aspire Program, we aim to teach the students responsibility, ownership and acceptance. The allocated activities require the students to think for themselves and plan for what is ahead. How much food will I need for the hike? How am I going to get into the city by myself?

Things don't always go to plan and we need to take ownership for our actions. I didn't pack enough food because I left packing to the last minute and was in a rush. We didn't get the assignment done on time because we prioritised something else. We all make mistakes, but we can learn from them and change what we do next time.

We need to be accepting of the consequences for our actions, because life isn't about being in denial of our actions or blaming others or making excuses. We are always learning.

We learn to work towards achieving things together. We communicate, even when it's difficult. We share, we grow, and we serve. Through this, we learn and take giant leaps towards maturing into functioning independent adults.

YEAR 7 CAMP

It was a very excited group of Year Sevens that headed to Bridgetown for four days. They experienced many things over those chilly days. Beating drums, feeding the 'Pooks', riding and canoeing around Big Brook Dam and sliding down the amazing three story slide in just four seconds flat, were just the beginning. Exploring the town of Bridgetown and enjoying everyone's company just added to the many great memories that were created on this camp. A huge thankyou to Mrs Hughes, her team and the staff at Bridgetown Camp School for organising our wonderful trip.

Tracky Dacks

TRACKSUIT THURSDAY IS HERE! Our Prefects have asked that in an early recognition of the fact that holidays are almost here, we all celebrate by wearing our tracky-dacks and oversized jumpers to school tomorrow! Perhaps even some ugg boots! This is a FREE event. Students who have manuals, Science, or PE must remember to bring appropriate footwear for those classes.

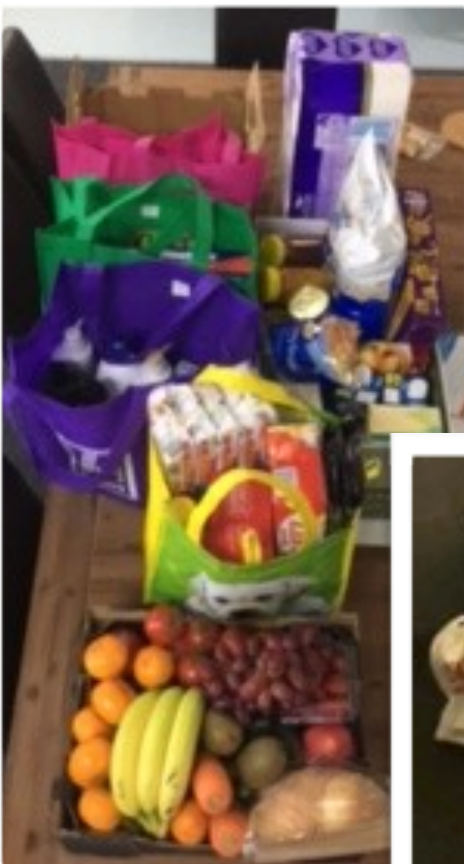

THANK YOU!

On behalf of the hills family, thank you so much for everyone's donations and prayers!

The family was completely in shock and immense appreciation.

HYMNFEST

On Saturday 10th June 2017 some of our Performing Arts students chose to fulfil one of their course requirements by joining students in the All Schools Choir for the annual Hymnfest held at Mount Pleasant Baptist Church in Booragoon.

This event, put on by the Perth Adventist Orchestra and the Perth Adventist Choir with members from many christian faiths, celebrates hymns and christian music and benefits the Bible Society of Australia. It was beautiful to see our many students up the front, singing with such enthusiasm and joy. Well done!

We look forward to seeing them perform again next year.
