

CARMEL NEWS

MESSAGE FROM THE PRINCIPAL

When Paul addresses the church in Rome, he mentions to them in Romans 1:8 'Let me first say that I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, because your faith in Him is being talked about all over the world'. Later in Romans 15:14 Paul goes on to say 'I myself am satisfied with you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge and able to instruct one another.'

When I read these verses, I can't help but liken them to Carmel and the people who have walked through our gates. It's interesting that the first two mentions to me of Carmel was firstly when I was in New Zealand and the second mention was during my time living in the UK and yes, it is true that this still small college has a great reputation that reaches across the world and still to this day impacts others around the world! So how does it do this? I feel that this is answered in the second part and it really is this simple; our students are good, they do the right thing, they act fairly and walk humbly. Secondly, they are filled with knowledge, a knowledge that can and will take them anywhere they desire in this world and thirdly, they are able to instruct one another, to help and assist one another and to give each other a lift through the gifts they possess.

When we see this happen through a student's journey at Carmel Adventist College we can be confident that as a school and as a community, we are on to something that is not just good, but something that is Biblical and is worth passing down through the ages.

CAC has served many people very well over the years and with God's help will continue to in the years ahead. We are privileged to a part of this wonderful organisation and I thank God daily for all of you as together we continue to make CAC, the place to be!

Blessings,

Mr Nicholas Thomson
Principal
